Sketching My Way through the Text

Name ________________________________  Chapter and Section_11-1______________________

Quote: When the Spanish colonized the Latin America, they brought their language, religion, architecture and music with them.

Quote: Mexico’s population has risen dramatically over the last 20 years.

Quote: Many people in rural areas leave home to look for work in urban, or city, areas.

Quote: These border factories (owned by American companies) are called maquiladoras.

Quote: The poor farmers, known as campesinos… cannot afford expensive farm equipment.

Now write a 1 - 2 sentence summary of this section.

__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
