Chapter 15, Section 2, Part 1: “Death and Rebirth”

As You Read: All of the following statements are false. Write the correct words in the blank to fix the false underlined words.

1. The event where the Catholic world had two competing Popes that tried to excommunicate each other is called the “Pope-pocolypse”.

2. In the mid-1300’s, up to half of Europe’s population died from the smallpox virus.

3. The period in history when there was a “rebirth” of interest in learning and art is called the Enlightenment.

4. The Renaissance began in Italy, where people began to rediscover ancient ideas from Egypt and Mesopotamia.

5. The Italian artist who created David and The Sistine Chapel was Raphael.

6. In 1453, Constantinople became a republic and its people voted in Europe’s first election since the time of the ancient Romans.

7. Other European nations were quick to send explorers to faraway lands, seeking oil and coal they could use to power their new factories.

8. In 1517, a German Catholic professor named Martin Luther posted a document attacking the corrupt practices of the church, leading to an entirely new Christian religion called Buddhism.

8. The Protestant Reformation led to the building of more bulletin boards where people could post their complaints about the church.

10. King Tutankhamen III gained great power when he made England a Protestant country in 1533.