A. As You Read

Directions: As you read Section 1 in your textbook, write one cause and one effect for each of the following events.

1. The Industrial Revolution began in Britain in the mid-1700s.
   Cause: ____________________________________________
   Effect: ____________________________________________

2. Samuel Slater memorized the design of the machines in British textile mills.
   Cause: ____________________________________________
   Effect: ____________________________________________

3. Eli Whitney invented machines that could manufacture identical parts.
   Cause: ____________________________________________
   Effect: ____________________________________________

4. Francis Cabot Lowell’s partners built a factory town named for him.
   Cause: ____________________________________________
   Effect: ____________________________________________

5. Textile mills hired young women.
   Cause: ____________________________________________
   Effect: ____________________________________________

B. Reviewing Key Terms

Directions: Define the following terms.

6. spinning jenny ______________________________________

7. capitalist __________________________________________

8. factory system ______________________________________

9. urbanization ________________________________________

Name__________________________________ Class______________ Date _______________