Sketching My Way through the Text

Name ________________________________  Chapter and Section: 13-4

Quote: Britain and the United States solved their dispute over Oregon by divided the territory at latitude 49° N. Each side took their own half.

Quote: According to the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, the U.S. gained the Mexican Cession in return for $15 million.

Quote: In 1846, Mexican troops crossed the Rio Grande and clashed with the Americans. President Polk asked Congress to declare war.

Quote: As part of the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, Americans agreed to respect the rights of Spanish-speaking people living in the Mexican Cession.

Quote: 1853, the U.S. paid Mexico $10 million for a strip of land in Arizona and New Mexico called the Gadsden Purchase.

Now write a 1 - 2 sentence summary of this section.
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________

____________________________  __________

______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________
______________________________________