

Chapter 17: The Civil War
Section 1: The Conflict Takes Shape (P.486-489)

As You Read: Fill in the table with information from the textbook

	United States of America	Confederated States of America
Direction	1.
Nickname	2.
Number of States (p.485)	3.
Reason for Fighting	④
Advantages at the Beginning of the War	⑤ The North had almost 4 times as many... ⑥ Northern factories produced more than... ⑦ The North had more than 70% of the... 8. The North benefited from a...	<input checked="" type="radio"/> The South had better generals that led them to win most of the early battles of the war. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Defending their homeland...</li> <li>• Confederate soldiers also knew the...</li> <li>• Confederate forces used the woods...</li> </ul>
Presidents	9.
Military Leader	10. President Lincoln had trouble...

Key Terms: Write the correct key term in the blanks below.

⑪ Four slave states (Kentucky, Missouri, Maryland and Delaware), located between the North and the South, decided to stay in the Union. These states were known as the _____
 _____. They contained important factories, good farmland and high populations.

⑫ In 1861, President Lincoln declared _____ (Rule by the military instead of by the elected government.) Citizens had far fewer rights during this time.