

Useful Internet Sources

Find high-quality videos, lesson plans, assignments, and other course material:

MERLOT: (multimedia Educational Resource for Learning and Online Teaching)

www.merlot.org

PBS Teachers

<http://www.pbs.org/teachers>

Teacher Tube

www.teachertube.com

Free Technology for Teachers:

<http://www.freetech4teachers.com/>

Musical videos

<http://www.teachhub.com/educational-music-videos>

Tech Creation sites:

Hip Hop

<http://flocabulary.com/>

<http://flocabulary.com/muchado/>

20 Technology Skills Every Educator Should Have:

http://www.guide2digitallearning.com/tools_technologies/20_technology_skills_every_educator_should_have

Resources for Teaching about Plagiarism:

<http://www.readwritethink.org/classroom-resources/lesson-plans/exploring-plagiarism-copyright-paraphrasing-1062.html?tab=4#tabs>

<http://www.collierschools.com/nhs/lmc/citations.htm>

http://www.wtps.org/wths/imc/professionaldevelopment/district%20librarians/district%20librarian_plagiarism.htm

A Short online quiz to take about whether you understand plagiarism:

<https://www.indiana.edu/~tedfrick/plagiarism/index2.html>

Best grammar and plagiarism checker: Not free?

<http://www.grammarly.com/?q=plagiarism&gclid=CLau1JTPv7MCFQmCQgodMXEAqA>